MINISTRY OF COMMERCE & INDUSTRY

RESOLUTION

New Delhi, the 26th March 1959

No. 34(6)-TMP/FMC/58.—In their Resolution No. 34(6)-TMP/FMC/58 dated the 6th October, 1958, the Government of India in the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, extended the period of exemption to transferable specific delivery contracts in raw jute and jute goods by six months from the 29th September, 1958. The extended period of exemption thus expires on the 28th March, 1959. The Forward Markets Commission has since recommended that in the circumstances now existing, the period of exemption in respect of transferable specific delivery contracts in raw jute and jute goods may be further extended upto 30th April 1959. The Government of India accepts this recommendation.

ORDER
